

Mr. K. Palakidnar, District Judge,
KALMUNAI.

Mr. Samsudeen and friends of the Bar,

It is indeed a sad occasion to reflect that Mr. Mylvaganam, who was an outstanding lawyer in this Court, has been removed from our midst at so short a notice. Mr. Mylvaganam was known to me when I was functioning here two years ago. I was impressed with his thoroughness and devotion to work and recall with gratitude the great assistance that I had from him in deciding the cases in which he appeared.

In your thorough and pains-taking reference, Mr. Samsudeen, you have done full justice to the many faceted life of a great man. In these days when feathering one's own nest is a rule, we have a rare exception in Mr. Mylvaganam who lived his life for the sake of others.

It would be a great solace to his family who know that we associate ourselves with their feelings in their moment of sorrow. I shall accede to your request to cause a minute of these proceedings to be sent to Mrs. Mylvaganam and her children to whom we owe our deepest sympathy.
