

MESSAGES

from:

Justice Hon. S. Sharwananda

(Judge of the Supreme Court)

I was shocked at the news of the sudden death of Mr. T. Mylvaganam. I was genuinely grieved at the passing away of a good friend of mine. I had come to know him rather intimately during the last ten years only. He was a very competent advocate, a sincere friend, and a fine gentleman with a social conscience and a philosopher's outlook. I shall always fondly treasure memories of him.

Mr. J. B. Panabokke

(Former Chairman, People's Bank)

I know the late Mr. T. Mylvaganam well because he was associated with me as a Director of the People's Bank. He made most useful contributions at our discussions at the Board and was most helpful to me in making decisions in the best interests of the common man and the co-operative sector through which it was our common effort to improve and help in the economic upliftment of the large mass of people who sought financial assistance through the Bank. It will be a source of solace and satisfaction to know that he in no small measure worked, helped and contributed for the betterment of his fellow citizens.
